St. James's, March 27.

The following Address of the Governour, Council, and Assembly of Barbados, having been transmitted by Charles Pinfold, Esq; their Governour, to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governour, Council, and Assembly of Barbados.

May it please your Majesty,

PErmit the Governour, Council, and Assembly of Barbados to offer our Congratulations on the happy Occasion of your Majesty's Marriage: An Occasion that fills with Joy the Hearts of all your faithful Subjects. Others may be more early in the Expression of their Duty and Affection, none can be more ardent than this your loyal Colony.

The mature Deliberation with which your Majesty was pleased to conduct the solemn Purpose, is an Instance of true Wisdom; the Publick Good, and your private Happiness, being united and involved in in the Event. May the Love of a grateful People; may all the tender Endearments of Domeſtick Felicity, become the pleaſing Reward, as they are the natural Conſequences, of your Majeſty's prudent Cares!

Nor is ſuch a mature Deliberation leſs honourable to the happy Princeſs, our Sovereign's amiable Conſort. Deſcended from an illuſtrious Houſe, ever firm to the Proteſtant Religion, Her ſuperior Merit has attained, amidſt a fair Choice, a more Noble, a more flattering Diſtinction; it has called Her forth to participate and to adorn ſo exalted, ſo delightful a Situation.

That Stability may be added to Happineſs and Grandeur, is all that is left for the Object of our Wiſhes: Except; forgive, Sir, the partial Exception! that your Majeſty may receive, with gracious Favour from this diſtant Country, the ſincere Declarations of our fervent Zeal for your Service, and of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon.

We are,
Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal, moſt Dutiful,
and moſt Faithful Subjects and Servants.
